

In the Thai language Thai Massage is known as „NUAD“.

While performing exercises and applying acupressure to energy points in your body, this massage will relieve pain and tension in your muscles, joints, and tendons. It will make your muscles feel relaxed and give you a sense of newly gained vitality and mental balance. Thai massage represents a traditional massage therapy in its original form, which has been practiced and taught for centuries.

Traditional Thai Massage

The basic attribute of Thai massage is the exertion of pressure on the body energy points. The massage relieves stress from muscles, feet, improves articulation of joints, straightens the spine, and overall brings to your body physical and mental relaxation.
